

I will dig up the perk test paper work today and send it to you this afternoon. The way I had this planned when your sitting on the porch you pretty much get the feeling your in a tree the front porch could easily be changed into something spectacular I kinda went generic on the print because I was more focused on the lake side. Have a great day Mark

Sent from my iPhone